2011 Dean's Award for Excellance in Mentoring

Why did you choose to be a professor at Duke?

My wife and I were offered positions in 2005, and we've been here ever since.

What achievements are you most proud of?

Finishing my book Racism Without Racists.

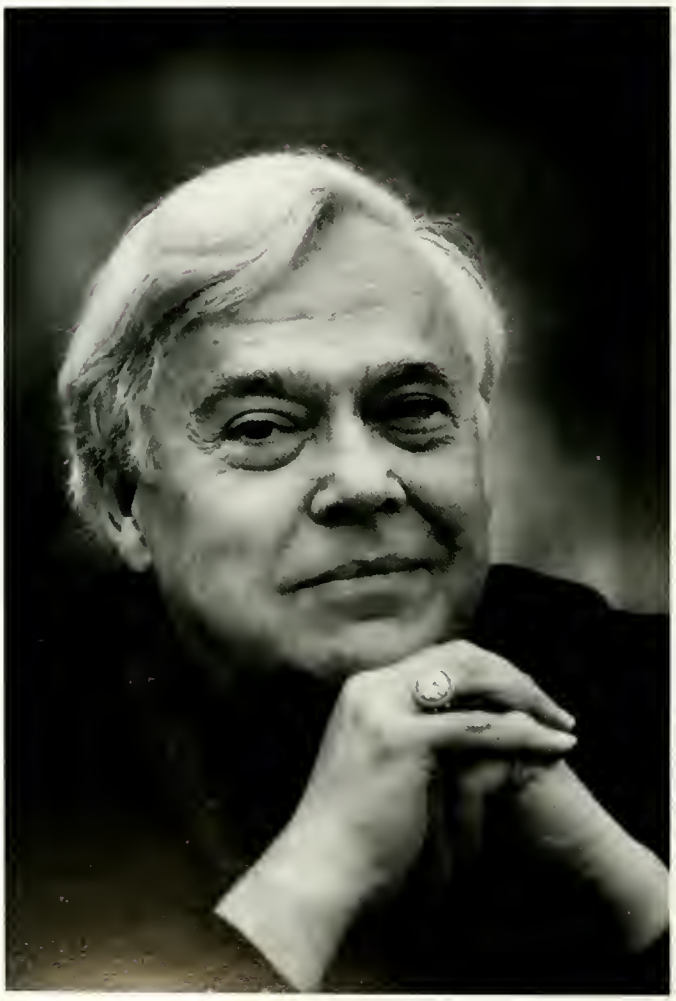
What is the best advice you ever received from a student?

Lecture less and allow for more interaction very similar to what Karl Marx once said, "The educator must be educated."

What classes to you teach?

Sociology 10D: Sociological Inquiry and Sociology 116: Comparative Race and Ethnicity

Reynolds Price



A commanding presence in the life of the university, Reynolds Price '5 died on January 20. Beginning with his first novel, the widely acclaime A Long and Happy Life, in 1962, he published nearly forty volumes, includ ing poetry, short stories, novels, essays, plays, and memoirs. After studyin at Oxford University as a Rhodes Scholar, he returned to Duke's Englis department in 1958; he was awarded a teaching position for three yea with no opportunity for extension. He did continue on, of course, in teaching career that spanned more than fifty years. - Duke Magazine
